ANNUAL PUBLICATION APPALACHIAN STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE, BOONE, N. C.

..... nineteen hundred sixty two

I am a part of all that I have met;
Yet all experience is an arch wherethro'
Gleams that untravell'd world whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move,
How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnish'd, not to shine in use!

FOREWORD

Each one of us arrives at Appalachian with old experiences and departs with new ones. Any one profits from many experiences: classes, attending convocation, extracurricular activities, dorm life, friends, consultations with professors, visits to the bookstore, yelling for Appalachian's Black and Gold, worrying about grades—all become a precious part of us. A person cannot realize his full potential if he lives in a narrow, "sit-on-the-sidelines" world. We here at Appalachian are preparing to enter the world of teaching. All the activities and interests we follow are part of our education in learning to be of service to others.

Does it seem possible that one day we will watch as alumni?

We proudly present Ralph Mareri.

We gain new friends and watch the growth of our college with pride.

Remember those screaming stands?

A tree becomes a symbol of Christmas.

We bear new sounds and attempt to

How many hours of practice does this take?

An exceptional squad—don't you think?

master new skills, both for our own enjoyment and for the pleasure of others.

Let us forget those first of the quarter lines.

DEDICATION

To a man and woman who represent to many the epitome of service and understanding in their professional lives and whom the students of Appalachian respect and admire, we of the 1962 RHODODENDRON staff and the students we represent proudly dedicate our publication to Dr. and Mrs. Graydon P. Eggers.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of its president Bill Mauldin, the Student Council assumed and carried out many new and worthwhile projects. Included in these projects were sponsoring buses to our "home" games, presenting two campus-wide talent shows, sponsoring a Queen of Clubs Review, and conducting all campus wide elections. All of this work was done in addition to the regular Student Council activities.

Our Council has worked long and hard this year and the students of Appalachian owe them a special vote of thanks, for they have set an excellent example of industry and responsibility for us.

Editor of the Appalachian

In addition to membership in the Associated Collegiate, Inter-Collegiate, and Carolina Collegiate press associations, the A.S.T.C. paper maintains an exchange system with newspapers of other colleges and universities all over the United States and abroad.

The Appalachian received a Class I honor rating last year, the highest distinction possible in its division of national competition.

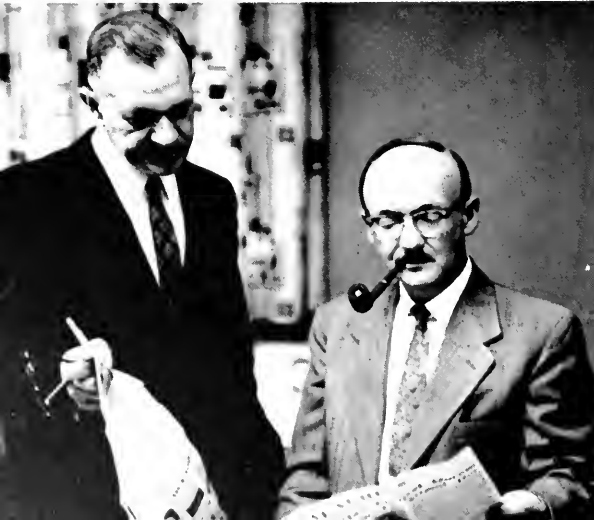

MARTHA FEATHERSTONE
Business Manager of the Appalachian

THE APPALACHIAN

The Appalachian, a weekly newspaper which has no faculty or administrative censorship, is published by a staff comprised of students who have at least a "C" average and who like writing. An editor and a business manager are chosen in a campus-wide election each year during the latter weeks of winter quarter.

Five delegates represented the publication at a national press convention held at Miami Beach, Florida, in November.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

"Who and Where is God?" was the theme for Religious Emphasis Week which was observed on the A.S.T.C. campus during February 4-7. Father Rodney Kirk, an Episcopal minister from Newton, was the main speaker for the entire week. Many varied and interesting programs were presented by the various groups represented by the Religious Council which was under Barron Lee.

A question for study and thought.

Nightly Dorm discussions make us aware of the theme of Religious Emphasis Week.

The reason for the success of Religious Emphasis Week—everyone works together.

Baron extends the campus' invitation to "come again."

RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

The Religious Council is the co ordinating body of the various student religious groups. Its members are elected and serve for a year's term. The main project of the Religious Council is sponsoring Religious Emphasis Week on the Appalachian Campus. During this week an outside speaker is invited to A.S.F.C. and various programs are presented by each religious group on campus.

Father Kirk, invited here by the Religious Council, formed the nucleus of a week of open discussion on questions of religion.

A talent-laden backfield and a heavy forward wall powered Appalachian State to a 7-3 record during the 1960 football campaign. In conference play the Apps claimed the second spot with a 5-1 record, losing only to arch-rival Lenoir Rhyne.

Performing in the newly formed Carolinas Conference, the Mountaineers piled up seven wins in their first eight games before dropping the final two contests. Several App players were named to honorary teams, co-captain Frank Smith topping the list by being named to the Greensboro Daily News All-State team.

Those making All-Conference included end Oval Jaynes, guard Frank Smith, tackle Joe Bulex, center Bill Isaacs and halfback Don Gardiner.

Starting off poorly, the Appalachian Mountaineers hit a hot streak after the Christmas holidays and soared to as high as fourth place in the 11 team Carolinas Conference. However, losses on the road tumbled the App cagers to seventh place, where they rested with a week of the season remaining.

The high point of the season was a 64-58 victory over Lenoir Rhyne in a game marred by a near riot.

Stars for the Mountaineers were numerous, but freshman Wayne Duncan and sophomore Jim Richardson shone the brightest. With only four games left, Richardson was averaging 16.1 points per game and Duncan 16.6 points. Only senior on the young team was captain and guard Harold Oetting.

B A S E B A L L

With the pitching arms of Tommy Wilson, Bob Dellinger, and Bill Church and the heavy bats of Glenwood Wilson, Bob Morrison, and others, the Appalachian baseball team ended the season with a better than fifty fifty score of nine wins and seven losses. Next year should also be good year for the App team as only a few key players will be lost through graduation. Post seasonal honors went to Bob Dellinger who was named to the 1961 All North State Baseball team. Congratulations to Coach Joe Bryson and the team.

Despite inadequate facilities, the A.S.T.C. track team, initiated by Eric DeGroat and now in its second year, has represented Appalachian well. Last spring the team attended both the National Association Inter-Collegiate Athletics Track Meet and the North State Conference Track Meet. In the NAA Meet, Don Mauldin and Ken Mauer placed in the discus and 220 Low Hurdles respectively. In the North State Conference Meet, Joe Lukaszewski placed in the two mile run and Terrell West tied for fifth place in the pole vault event.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The state-wide, one-day, Collegiate Tennis Tournament was held this year on the campus of the University of North Carolina with fourteen colleges represented. The girls representing A.S.T.C. were Martha Stephens, Georgia Landon, Lois Holmes, Joan Marcott, Tommie Lambert, and Myrna Stephens, Manager. In the absence of "Doc" Thomas, women's tennis coach, Miss Margaret Lawson and Mrs. James Jones traveled with the team. Martha Stephens and Georgia Landon, defending doubles champions, brought back the championship once again by defeating Guilford, ECC, and Queens. This was the first time in the history of the tournament that this had been done. The finals were the regulation two out of three sets, but all other matches were one set only. Lois Holmes won a first close round, but lost to Jo Ann Cooper who was the final runner-up of the tournament. Joan Marcott was beaten in the second round.

MAY COURT

Spring in Boone means many things to many different people, but to many it means the culmination of a year's activities highlighted by the presentation of the May Queen and her Court. Through the combined efforts of many different people, this year's court was presented in the grandest manner possible.

IT IS OUR PLEASURE — When you have a good time at the movies.

IT IS OUR PLEASURE — When you laugh and cry at things you see on the screen.

IT IS OUR PLEASURE — That youngsters have come to know and love the movies as a very special treat.

IT IS OUR PLEASURE — That Hollywood is constantly searching for new ideas and bringing them to life.

IT IS OUR PLEASURE — That we have a part in the entertaining of the students of Appalachian State Teachers College.
